

NURTURING GREAT GLOBAL LEADERS

Sports Graduate Intern

August 2026 start

DBS Denla British School is seeking to appoint a Sports Graduate Intern for August 2026, for a full academic year. This position would ideally suit a recent graduate from university who may be considering a career in teaching and is seeking in-school and in-lesson experience as well as the ability to experience and visit all of the diverse culture South-East Asia has to offer. The nature of the role requires a proactive and positive sports person with a strong knowledge of the main sports played at DBS (football, basketball, volleyball, badminton) or a strong specialism in any given sport offered at DBS as well as a confidence to lead teams and assist in lessons. The candidate will assist with both the academic and co-curricular provision in our rapidly expanding PE & Games department.

Job Description

Job title:	Sports Graduate Intern
Reports to:	Director of Sport
Responsible for:	No posts
Working time:	40 hours per week during term time and additional hours as required for events
Remuneration:	The post comes with accommodation and a living allowance and is supplemented by the opportunity to lead paid ASA's

Job purpose overview

This role seeks to challenge a versatile sports graduate who is ready to embrace the full breadth of the work of the PE & Games department and to help enhance its role across the whole School.
