School Emotional Counsellor

JOB DESCRIPTION

The Role

For this expansion role, the School Emotional Counsellor will work collaboratively and proactively with the students, teachers, and parents to provide therapeutic services for the DBS school community using an integrative approach. They will identify, address and provide interventions to support a wide range of emotional health issues for students aged 3-19. The counselling service operates in accordance with best practices in the UK and internationally, while following the BACP code of practice. The role involves providing individual counselling sessions, group workshops, and targeted programs in order for students to build resilience, discover potential resolutions and coping strategies, and explore interpersonal skills. With a deep understanding of the unique pressures faced by international students, counsellors play a crucial role in fostering a supportive school culture that values empathy, diversity, and personal growth.

This role involves contributing to safeguarding and promoting mental and emotional health of the school community. The counsellor maintains accurate records and data of counselling sessions and presiding issues. The counsellor liaises with external agencies and professionals when appropriate, and attends regular supervision and professional development opportunities.

The School Counsellor must also subscribe fully to the core values of the school, demonstrate a commitment to a positive and inclusive school culture, and work collaboratively with a diverse group of stakeholders, including students, parents, teachers, and administrators.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES
